

1896, ch. 135.

61 A. The sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, to be paid by the State treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller on the first day of August, 1896, and annually thereafter, and to be expended or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the purchase of text-books as provided in this article. The whole of said sum shall be apportioned by the comptroller in the month of July of each and every year, as the State school tax is now apportioned, and he shall immediately thereafter notify the treasurer of the several boards of county school commissioners of the counties and city of Baltimore, of the amount thus found to be due to each, and the same shall be paid to the treasurer of the board of school commissioners of Baltimore city and the several counties, upon the draft of the president and secretary of the several boards of county school commissioners and the city of Baltimore aforesaid.

1898, ch. 520.

61 B. The State board of education and the board of public school commissioners of Baltimore city are hereby required to furnish the public schools of this State with a text-book upon civil government in addition to the text-books now furnished them, and it shall be included in the branches of study now taught in the public schools and shall be taught to and be studied by all pupils whose capacity will admit of it, in all departments of the public schools of this State, and in all educational institutions supported wholly or in part by money from the State.

County Examiner.

1894, ch. 375.

64. No certificate of qualification as a teacher shall be issued to any male under nineteen years of age, or to any female under eighteen years of age.

1890, ch. 511.

67 A. In lieu of the security provided for in the last preceding section, the said bond may have the security of any deposit or trust company, or other similar company duly incorporated under the laws of this State, and having by law the power to act as such security.
